

Action Week „Weltoffenes Werder“

15 – 23 September 2023

A week of events for a cosmopolitan and diverse society and against racism and exclusion.

You would like to participate in one of the events and need a translator? Then please write us a message as early as possible to: info@weltoffenes-werder.de

Free entry

Friday, 15.09.

The taste of diversity – A culinary festival

The Haus am See – Familienzentrum Werder invites you to a culinary journey around the world to exchange ideas and gain an insight into other worlds while cooking and eating together. There will also be various activities for young and old, such as a bouncy castle, sumo wrestling, choir and much more.

15:30 – 18:00, Haus am See, Adolf-Damaschke-Straße 35-37

Sunday, 17.09.

Family service „God’s world is colourful!“

Every person is unique and can enrich the world. In this family service we celebrate the diversity on God’s colourful earth.

10:30 am, Heilig-Geist-Kirche Werder, Kirchstr. 9

Concert: „Missa Criolla

The Missa Criolla is a mass composition with Latin American musical forms and rhythms by the Argentinian composer Ariel Ramirez and is considered the most important work of Argentinian sacred music. It is music in honour of life that includes all people regardless of their faith, skin colour or origin. In the context of the concert the exhibition „Herzkampf“ will be opened as well.

17:00, Heilig-Geist- Kirche Werder, Kirchstr. 9

Monday, 18.09.

Film: This Rain will never stop

The film takes the audience on a visually stunning journey through the endless cycle of war and peace in humanity. 20-year-old Andriy Suleyman is accompanied – from the Syrian civil war to the war in Ukraine – in his attempt to secure a sustainable future while paying the human tribute for armed conflict.

20:00, Scala Kulturpalast, Eisenbahnstr. 182

Tuesday, 19.09.

Concert: Veto and Paul Geigerzähler

Veto makes great punk rock with violin. Clear enemy, little tact, lots of love.

Paul Geigerzähler plays an obstinate mix of reggae, folk and punk with poetically polished political lyrics.

7:30 pm, Uferwerk, Luisenstr. 17

Wednesday 20.09.

Interreligious dialogue

How do religions relate to the natural environment? In our interreligious dialogue we ask about the relationship to nature in Christianity and in other religions.

19:00, TREFFPUNKT, Plantagenplatz 11

Thursday, 21.09.

Werderaner Gespräche: „Migration in Deutschland“

The EHG organises a theme mosaic „Migration and Integration“ with art and music. The focus will be on another episode of the panel discussion „Werderaner Gespräche“ on the question „Migration in Germany – What does successful integration look like?“

17:00 – 21:00, Foyer Ernst-Häckel-Gymnasium Werder, Kesselgrundstraße 62-68

Thu. 21.9.+ Fri. 22.9.

Theatre workshop „I have a dream“

Playfully, creatively and with a lot of theatre power we will get to the bottom of the question: Who am I and who are you? And what do we wish for Werder so that we can live well here ?

For children and young people aged 8-13. Registration: weigel.eva-lisa@ekmb.de

3:30 – 5:30 p.m., Parish Hall, Adolf-Damaschke-Straße 9

23.09.

Festival Weltoffenes Werder

Closing of the action week with concerts and an extensive programme for young and old. The street football tournament for tolerance will take place as part of the festival.

13:00 – 20:00, Marktplatz, Insel Werder

15.09. – 23.09.

Photo exhibition „Herzkampf

The exhibition portrays people who put their heart and soul into social and political issues. It is meant to encourage and show: no one is alone, everyone can do something.

Daily 10:00 – 18:00, Heilig-Geist-Kirche Werder, Kirchstr. 9

Exhibition „Narrative Gallery on the road

#05 – My thoughts and my face tell of peace“. Exhibition by the Potsdam artist Katrin Seifert on the project „My thoughts and my face tell of peace“ with portraits and stories by and with migrants.

Weekdays 08:00 – 17:00, Haus 3 Waldorf Schule Werder, Elsastr. 14/16